Investment Policy

The CCRESA’s fund balance shall be invested with the objective of preserving its assets to cover operating expenses and realizing earnings in a way that allows for immediate liquidity to meet the CCRESA’s ongoing programmatic and operational needs. The fund balance may be maintained in the checking account that the CCRESA uses for day-to-day operations and may be invested in other cash-equivalent investments, such as savings accounts, money market accounts, certificates of deposit with maturities appropriate for expected needs, Treasury bills and other investments that are relatively easy to liquidate. The Executive Director and Treasurer will annually review the allocation of the CCRESA’s assets between the checking account and its other cash-equivalent investments, determining the appropriate allocation based on the CCRESA's cash-flow needs, and report such allocation to the Board for approval.

Donations Acceptance Policy

The CCRESA may solicit and accept donations that are consistent with its mission and that support its core programs as well as special projects. Donations and other forms of support will generally be accepted from individuals, partnerships, corporations, foundations, government agencies, or other entities. Donations of Real Property, Personal Property or Securities may only be accepted upon approval of the Board of Directors by a two-thirds vote.

Capitalization Policy

The CCRESA defines a "Capital Asset" as a unit of property that has an economic useful life that extends beyond 12 months and was acquired or produced for a cost of $2,500 or more. Capital Assets must be capitalized and depreciated for bookkeeping purposes. Any items costing below $2,500 should be listed as expenditures under "Office Supplies & Expenses" in the Financial Report. Invoice substantiating an acquisition cost of each unit of property shall be retained for a minimum of four years.

Cash Receipt Policy

All funds, whether cash or check, received by the CCRESA will be deposited intact into the CCRESA's bank account, with no monies removed to make payments or for other purposes. The Office Manager opens all mail addressed to the organization and will immediately endorse all checks with a "For Deposit Only" stamp. A photocopy of the check along with the deposit record, filed chronologically, will be retained in the Deposit Ledger which will be available at any time for the Treasurer to review.

Either the Executive Director or the Office Manager will deposit checks at the bank within 3 business days from when they were received. If, for any reason, immediate deposit is not possible, checks will be stored in a locked cabinet until either party is able to make the deposit.

Bookkeeping Policy

The Executive Director and Office Manager will have full access to the CCRESA's online Accounting Program, Quickbooks. The Treasurer will have access to review and generate reports at any time. The CCRESA will share access of the Accounting Program with the Board-approved CPA. The Office Manager will maintain the Chart of Accounts, as approved by the Board in the Annual Budget. It is the duty of the Office Manager to keep the accounts current and up to date.

Bank Reconciliation Policy

Bank statements are to be reconciled to the account register monthly. Reconciliations will be performed by the Executive Director or other staff designee. The Treasurer will work with the Executive Director or other staff designee to investigate outstanding items. All Bank statements will be reviewed by the Treasurer and Executive Director.

Cash Disbursement Policy

Make all disbursements from the organization's funds by check, with the exception of online bill pay for recurring monthly office expenses.

The Executive Director, the Office Manager, the Treasurer, and the Chair shall be designated as signatories on CCRESA accounts. All checks must have two signatures. Check Signers must verify that the amount of the check is consistent with the amount invoiced or has received prior approval by the Treasurer. Checks written over $10,000 must have prior Board approval. An exception to the requirement for Board approval is allowed when the expense has been previously budgeted and approved by the Board of Directors. In no event will blank checks be signed in advance or made out to "cash", "bearer", etc.

It is the duty of the Treasurer to periodically spot-check the account to compare the bank automatic payments with the vendor statements for accuracy and consistency.

Conflict of Interest Policy

All members of the Organization's Board of Directors and key employees shall exercise that same care that a reasonable person, with similar abilities, acumen, and sensibilities, would under similar circumstances at all times. No member of the Board of Directors or key employees shall engage in, or condone, any conduct that is disloyal, disruptive, damaging, or competes with the Organization. No member of the Board of Directors or employee shall take any action, or establish any interest, that compromises his/her ability to represent the Organization's best interest. No member of the Board of Directors or key employee shall disobey a majority decision of the Board of Directors.

All members of the Board of Directors and key employees are bound to Fiduciary Duty for and on behalf of the Organization, such that the interests of the Organization shall remain paramount to any and all of their personal interests whatsoever. All members of the Board of Directors and key employees shall exercise their Fiduciary Duty at all times, especially when making a decision on behalf of the Organization.

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Whistleblower Policy

If any board member, employee, or volunteer reasonably believes that some policy, practice, or activity of the CCRESA is in violation of law, a written complaint must be filed by that board member, employee, or volunteer with either the Executive Director or the Board Chair.

It is the intent of the CCRESA to adhere to all laws and regulations that apply to the organization, and the underlying purpose of this policy is to support the CCRESA's goal of legal compliance. The support of all board members, employees, and volunteers is necessary to achieving compliance with various laws and regulations. A board member, employee, or volunteer is protected from retaliation only if the board member, employee, or volunteer brings the alleged unlawful activity, policy, or practice to the attention of the CCRESA and provides the CCRESA with a reasonable opportunity to investigate and correct the alleged unlawful activity. The protection described below is only available to a board member, employee, or volunteer that complies with this requirement.

The CCRESA will not retaliate against a board member, employee, or volunteer who in good faith has made a protest or raised a complaint against some practice of the CCRESA, or of another individual or entity with whom the CCRESA has a business relationship, on the basis of a reasonable belief that the practice is in violation of law, or a clear mandate of public policy.

The CCRESA will not retaliate against board members, employees, or volunteers who disclose or threaten to disclose to the Executive Director, a member of the board, or a public body any activity, policy, or practice of the CCRESA that the board member, employee or volunteer reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule, or regulation mandated pursuant to law, or is in violation of a clear mandate of public policy concerning the health, safety, welfare, or protection of the environment.

Private Benefit & Inurement Policy

The CCRESA is prohibited from allowing more than an insubstantial accrual of private benefit to individuals or organizations. If a private benefit is more than incidental, it could jeopardize the organization's tax-exempt status. No part of the CCRESA's net earnings may inure to the benefit of a Board Member, Executive Director, or a key employee.

If the CCRESA becomes aware that it may have engaged in an excess benefit transaction, the Executive Director will consult with a tax advisor and take appropriate action to avoid any potential impact it could have on the CCRESA's continued exempt status.

Political Campaigning & Legislative Activity Policy

The CCRESA will not be directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) a candidate for public office. Contributions to political campaign funds or public statements of position made on behalf of the CCRESA in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for public office clearly violate the prohibition against political campaign activity.

Board Members, the Executive Director, and key employees cannot make partisan comments in official organization publications or at official functions. When speaking in a non-official capacity, these leaders should clearly indicate that their comments are personal, and not intended to represent the views of the organization.

The CCRESA will not be engaging in substantial legislative activity, commonly referred to as lobbying. The CCRESA may choose to engage in conversations with policymakers that are consistent with the organization's educational mission as long as these activities remain an insubstantial part of the CCRESA's overall activity.

Transparency Policy

In order to serve the public trust, Board Meeting Minutes and all associated documentation will be accessible to the public through the Board of Director's page on the CCRESA's website.

Purchasing Policy

The Office Manager and Executive Director of the CCRESA are expected to expend funds in an efficient and cost-effective manner. When feasible and reasonable, competitive prices should be sought for products and services before purchasing decisions are made. No payments or contracts should be made with any family members of an employee or a member of the Board of Directors unless approved by the Board of Directors in advance.

EMPLOYEE CREDIT CARD USE & REIMBURSEMENT

Policy for the Use of CCRESA Debit & Credit Cards

This policy is intended to implement the controls over any debit or credit card usage relating to the operations and activities of Central Carolina Regional Service Alliance (CCRESA). Any debit or credit card usage relating to the operations and activities of CCRESA shall only be made in furtherance of CCRESA's exempt purposes (as provided for in the CCRESA Bylaws) and subject to this policy.

Subject to oversight by the CCRESA Board and the Treasurer, the Executive Director shall have control over and shall be responsible for the issuance, revocation, monitoring and reporting with regards to any and all debit or credit cards held by or on behalf of CCRESA.

The Executive Director may issue or cause to be issued debit or credit cards to any employee, or representative of CCRESA. Any person to whom a CCRESA-owned debit or credit card is issued shall sign a statement acknowledging receipt thereof and a copy of this policy.

The Board imposes the following monetary limitations on any cards authorized for use pursuant to this policy. Such limitations shall be the maximum amounts authorized for each eligible individual per month. Any amounts exceeding $10,000 shall be required to have prior authorization as follows: the Executive Committee for the Executive Director, and the Executive Director for any other eligible employees or representatives.

No personal purchases may ever be made utilizing a CCRESA-issued debit or credit card. Any misuse of a CCRESA debit or credit card by an employee or representative of CCRESA may result in discipline up to and including termination.

Receipts shall be required for all purchases regardless of the amount. The Executive Director or designee shall maintain records of all expenditures for payment of charges incurred by CCRESA through use of debit or credit cards. Such records shall be made available to the Board or any Board member upon request. The Treasurer shall review the CCRESA debit and credit card expenditure records periodically.

Upon separation from service, employment, or otherwise, the Executive Director, or other employee, or representative of CCRESA with a CCRESA debit or credit card shall immediately surrender such card or cards. The Executive Director will submit his card to the Board Chair, and all other employees will submit theirs to the Executive Director or his or her designee.

Accountable Plan for Business Expense Reimbursement

Employees are to use their Company Credit or Debit Cards for all business related purchases when possible.

Any CCRESA employee or contracted consultant, if applicable, shall be reimbursed for any ordinary and necessary business and professional expenses incurred on behalf of CCRESA only if the expenses are adequately substantiated as required by the CCRESA policy on travel and expense reimbursement.

Under no circumstances will CCRESA reimburse employees for business or professional expenses incurred on behalf of CCRESA that are not properly substantiated. CCRESA and employees understand that this requirement is necessary to prevent our expense reimbursement plan from being classified as a “non-accountable” plan.

All expenses must be substantiated within a reasonable period of time and no later than 60 days after the expense is paid or incurred.

All charges to CCRESA credit cards must be substantiated in the same manner as the above mentioned reimbursements

Advances that are not substantiated within a reasonable period of time must be returned (paid back) within a reasonable period of time and no later than 120 days after the expense is paid of incurred.

Accountable Plan for Travel Reimbursement

CCRESA employees will be reimbursed for mileage at the Federal rate for travel to any meetings or events held outside of the CCRESA offices. No mileage reimbursement will be made to Board Members traveling to a CCRESA meeting or event.

The following expenses are considered reimbursable: airfare, lodging, transportation, parking/tolls, meals, and other ordinary and necessary business expenses.

Expenses that are NOT reimbursable include, but are not limited to: personal alcohol, personal travel during a CCRESA trip, spousal expenses, limousine travel, laundry service, traffic citations, auto repairs, and in-room movies, costs for use of hotel gym, massage, or sauna.

Contracted consultants, when applicable, will be reimbursed for mileage at the Federal rate under the following conditions:

- The expense must have been incurred in the performance of services as a contracted consultant of the CCRESA.
- The contractor must substantiate their business expenses by providing the CCRESA with evidence of the amount, time, place, and business purpose of the expense within a reasonable period of time after they are paid or incurred.
- Overpayments made by the CCRESA to the contractor must be returned to the CCRESA within a reasonable period of time and no later than 120 days.

Exceptions to this policy must have the prior written approval of the Chair.

Employee Reimbursement Procedures

In order for employees of the CCRESA to be reimbursed for goods or services purchased for the organization with a personal credit/debit card or cash, they must complete the "Employee Reimbursement Form" and attach original receipts that show the date, amount, and what the expense was for. If the expenses occurred during business related travel, the employee must complete the "Travel Expense Report" and submit with the "Employee Reimbursement Form". The Executive Director's expense reimbursement must be approved by the Board Chair. The Executive Director or the Board Chair can approve expense reimbursement for other CCRESA staff. Forms must be submitted within 60 days from the date the expense was incurred. If employees are overpaid, they must return any excess reimbursement within a reasonable period of time and no later than 120 days.

CCRESA employees are expected to make reasonable selections while ordering meals while traveling. Reasonable tips for meals will be reimbursed and must be documented on the original receipt submitted with the "Travel Expense Report" and the "Employee Reimbursement Form". In most situations, meal expenses incurred in the city or town in which the residence or primary work location of the employee is located are not reimbursable.
